

Indian High School Student of the Year: Tamia Rose Two Moons

Tamia is a dual enrolled student at Lame Deer High School and Chief Dull Knife College on the Northern Cheyenne Reservation. Tamia is an outstanding young leader who has made a difference in both her high school and college. She serves as the Senior Class President, is all-state in basketball, cross country and track, and is ranked first in her senior class. Tamia works diligently each year to reflect to the community the pride and spirit of Lame Deer High School.

Tamia was also named Chief Dull Knife College student of the month in September. These awards are chosen by the college faculty to acknowledge student's hard work and dedication to college course work.

Her nominator writes, Tamia is a decorated and inspiring young individual who is both enterprising and capable. She is a young woman who has consistently been committed to the ideals of honesty, hard work, and personal growth. Her concern for and commitment to personal growth in the areas of emotional, spiritual, and social development exemplify not only her individuality but her commitment to her family.
